Volunteer Roles

Local Ambassador
Would you like to represent the York Teaching Hospital Charity in your local community? If the answer is yes, we would love to hear from you.

What we do
The York Teaching Hospital Charity raises vital funds to support the work of York Hospitals to ensure the best quality of care is provided to patients and their carers.

Activities you will be involved in
As a Local Ambassador, you will help us to raise the profile of the charity in the area and encourage people to support us by:

- Displaying leaflets and posters in your local community
- Organising collections and events
- Giving talks to local groups and schools
- Picking up cheques and giving thank you talks
- Supporting others raising funds for us in the area
- Working with the local media

Skills

- Enjoy meeting new people and building relationships
- Confident speaker
- Passionate about your local Hospitals

Benefits of volunteering
Volunteering is a great way to give your time for a fantastic cause. By volunteering for the charity you can make new friends, build confidence, learn and develop your skills and have lots of fun along the way.

Other information
We ask our volunteers to only give as much time as they can. Our roles are designed to accommodate your particular interests and we always try to work around you. The Local Ambassador role will require some flexibility as giving talks to local groups may take place on an evening and events may occur on a weekend. If you don't have your own transport it would be an advantage to have access to good transport links. We will ensure you are inducted into your role and our organisation and we also provide opportunities throughout the year for you to meet other volunteers. Ongoing support in your role will be provided by the local Fundraising Manager.

Workplace Champion
Would you like to represent the York Teaching Hospital Charity in your workplace? If the answer is yes, we would love to hear from you.

What we do
The York Teaching Hospital Charity raises vital funds to support the work of York Hospitals to ensure the best quality of care is provided to patients and their carers.

Activities you will be involved in
As a Workplace Champion, you will help us to raise the profile of the charity in your workplace and encourage people to support us by:

- Displaying leaflets and posters in your workplace
- Placing charity information on your Intranet / in your newsletters
- Organising events inside or outside the workplace
- Supporting our local appeals
- Choosing the charity as your 'Charity of the Year'

Skills desired

- Passionate about your local Hospitals
- Looking for a new challenge / opportunity to develop organisational and team building skills

Benefits of volunteering
Volunteering is a great way to give your time for a fantastic cause. By volunteering for the charity you can make new friends, build confidence, learn and develop your skills and have lots of fun along the way.

Other information
We ask our volunteers to only give as much time as they can. Our roles are designed to accommodate your particular interests and we always try to work around you. The Workplace Champion role may require some flexibility if events are organised to take place on a weekend. We will ensure you are inducted into your role and our organisation and we also provide opportunities throughout the year for you to meet other volunteers. Ongoing support in your role will be provided by the local Fundraising Manager.

Collections Co-ordinator
Would you like to organise collections in support of the York Teaching Hospital Charity in your local community? If the answer is yes, we would love to hear from you.

What we do
The York Teaching Hospital Charity raises vital funds to support the work of York Hospitals to ensure the best quality of care is provided to patients and their carers.

Activities you will be involved in
As a Collections Co-ordinator, you will help to raise much needed funds for the charity by:

- Organising supermarket and street collections in your local community throughout the year
- Recruiting collectors to assist at the collections
- Advertising the collections via the media
- Distributing collection tins in your local community, e.g., placing and changing the collection tins in local businesses, shops etc
- Counting and banking the money raised

Skills desired

- Enjoy meeting new people
- Trustworthy
- Knowledgeable about the local area
- Passionate about your local Hospitals

Benefits of volunteering
Volunteering is a great way to give your time for a fantastic cause. By volunteering for the charity you can make new friends, build confidence, learn and develop your skills and have lots of fun along the way.

Other information
We ask our volunteers to only give as much time as they can. Our roles are designed to accommodate your particular interests and we always try to work around you. The Collections Co-ordinator role will require some flexibility as some collections may take place on a weekend. If you don't have your own transport it would be an advantage to have access to good transport links. We will ensure you are inducted into your role and our organisation and we also provide opportunities throughout the year for you to meet other volunteers. Ongoing support in your role will be provided by the local Fundraising Manager.

Fundraising Group member / Chairperson
Would you like to join or Chair a local fundraising group to support the work of the York Teaching Hospital Charity in your local community? If the answer is yes, we would love to hear from you.

What we do
The York Teaching Hospital Charity raises vital funds to support the work of York Hospitals to ensure the best quality of care is provided to patients and their carers.

Activities you will be involved in
As a fundraising group Chair or member, you will help us to raise vital funds for the charity and encourage people to support us by:

- Working in a group to organise fundraising events in the local area
- Displaying leaflets and posters in your local community to promote your events and charity appeals

- Picking up cheques and giving thank you talks
- Working with the local media
- Attending meetings
- Counting and banking the money raised and sending out thank you letters to supporters

Skills desired

- Enjoy meeting new people
- Passionate about your local Hospitals
- Team player
- Looking for a new challenge

Benefits of volunteering

Volunteering is a great way to give your time for a fantastic cause. By volunteering for the charity you can make new friends, build confidence, learn and develop your skills and have lots of fun along the way.

Other information

We ask our volunteers to only give as much time as they can. Our roles are designed to accommodate your particular interests and we always try to work around you. The Fundraising Group member / Chairperson role will require some flexibility as meetings may take place on an evening and events may occur on a weekend. If you don't have your own transport it would be an advantage to have access to good transport links. We will ensure you are inducted into your role and our organisation and we also provide opportunities throughout the year for you to meet other volunteers. Ongoing support in your role will be provided by the local Fundraising Manager.

Fundraising Volunteer Co-ordinator

Would you like to recruit and manage fundraising volunteers for the York Teaching Hospital Charity in your local community? If the answer is yes, we would love to hear from you.

What we do

The York Teaching Hospital Charity raises vital funds to support the work of York Hospitals to ensure the best quality of care is provided to patients and their carers.

Activities you will be involved in

As a Fundraising Volunteer Co-ordinator, you will help us to recruit and retain fundraising volunteers in the area by:

- Displaying recruitment materials in the local community such as posters and leaflets
- Working with the local Volunteer Centre in York to advertise volunteer roles
- Displaying volunteer adverts on recruitment websites
- Attending volunteer and community fairs
- Interviewing, inducting and supporting volunteers

Skills desired

- Enjoy meeting new people
- Feel confident managing and supporting others
- Looking for a new challenge
- Passionate about your local Hospitals

Benefits of volunteering

Volunteering is a great way to give your time for a fantastic cause. By volunteering for the charity you can make new friends, build confidence, learn and develop your skills and have lots of fun along the way.

Other information

We ask our volunteers to only give as much time as they can. Our roles are designed to accommodate your particular interests and we always try to work around you. The Fundraising Volunteer Co-ordinator role will require some flexibility as attending volunteer and community fairs may take place on a weekend. If you don't have your own transport it would be an advantage to have access to good transport links. We will ensure you are inducted into your role and our organisation and we also provide opportunities throughout the year for you to meet other volunteers. Ongoing support in your role will be provided by the local Fundraising Manager.

For more information please contact Lucy Watson on Tel: 01904 721737, Mobile: 07960 180067 or Email: lucy.watson@york.nhs.uk