

Supporting pupils who stammer

Overview and aims:

This session will help teachers and support staff to:

- Understand the causes of stammering
- Understand the types and stages of stammering
- Raise awareness of the difficulties found in school
- Discuss how teachers and support staff can best help.
- There will also be an opportunity to ask questions

“Very informative, lots of useful information and strategies.” “The course was well organised and had a lot of content. I suspect lots of people think they know about stammering - they might be surprised!” “Very good course, detailed and practical advice and information.”
