

Children and Adults Safeguarding Privacy Notice

Why are we collecting your information?

This Privacy Notice has been written to inform you that York and Scarborough Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation Trust (the Trust) processes information about you to protect children and vulnerable adults from maltreatment and abuse.

In addition to this our Adults Safeguarding team also support people with learning disabilities and their families/carers.

Who do we collect your information from?

Much of the information we use will be collected directly from you or your family members. We also use information received from:

- GPs
- Other NHS bodies
- Other Care Providers, such as private sector providers
- Ambulance trusts
- Local Authorities
- Police

Who are we?

The Trust is a 'Data Controller', this means that we determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, your personal data is processed. We have a responsibility to you and your personal data and will only collect and use this in ways which are compliant with data protection legislation.

The Trust has appointed Rebecca Bradley (Head of Information Governance) to be its Data Protection Officer (DPO). The role of the DPO is to ensure that the Trust is compliant with Data Protection legislation and to oversee data protection procedures.
